SPEECH

Teacher: Beth Yost

Tuition: $160 (½ paid at registration, ½ paid first day of classes in August)

Credit: 1/2

CLASS DESCRIPTION

Materials: Spiral Notebook with pocket(s)

Pencil, Pen, Highlighter

Textbook: Possibly a $5 ebook

Homework: Practice at home at least 1-2 hours a week

Prerequisites: None

In this course, students will learn to open up, find their voices and communicate with confidence. They will practice the skills used in public speaking to help them become effective speakers and be understood. Skills learned will include topic selection, research, organization language choice, appearance, and delivery style. The role of the listener and developing an understanding of the audience-speaker relationship are also stressed. Projects will include informative, devotional, and persuasive speeches, as well as speaking in special situations.